

MINE THE VALUE of distressed assets.

Give me a call – and earn a commission.

For over 15 years, TBF Financial has been the trusted buyer of distressed commercial assets from the largest companies in the finance industry. These companies know that the selling process is easy and the sales proceeds are pure profit.

As a broker, you're in a prime position to help your financial partners capitalize on their distressed assets. TBF can help.

Introduce us to the banks and finance companies you do business with. If your referral leads to closing a deal, we'll pay you a commission.
